

A beautiful scenery

We live in the North-East of Italy, in Friuli-Venezia-Giulia, in a beautiful area called Incarajo Valley.

You can see our villages in this valley: Paularo, Dierico, Trelli, Chiaulis, Salino and Ravinis.

They are surrounded by high mountains covered by firwoods and beechwoods.

Above 1500-2000m. you can see swiss mountain pine and alpine pastures .

Cows and sheeps are trasporterd here for grazing during the summer. (Agnese, a girl of us, can tell you everything, if you want, because his father run a farm).

Above 1500 m. there are no trees, but you can find only rocks because is too cold and windy .
